

Top 5 Snorkeling Spots in The Virgin Islands

Who doesn't love spending vacations on a tour? There are many options for the tour such as visiting Las Vegas, Switzerland and many other. Have you ever considered spending vacations on an island? Then today let's talk about top 5 spots for snorkeling in the Virgin Island.

1st Spot for snorkeling in the Virgin Island: Maho Bay

The location of Maho Bay is in the northern shores of St. John. The famous things of Maho Bay are the white sand beach, magnificent blue waters, coconut trees as well as the magical world that lies beyond the sand.

You can also find rays, schools of baitfish feeding as well as sea turtles too on the shallow waters. You can also find more amazing aquatic animals if you follow the western and eastern shorelines. Furthermore, you can also meet a lionfish or a nurse shark (don't worry it's docile) if you're lucky.

2nd Spot for snorkeling in the Virgin Island: Buck Island

Buck Island is one of the best spots for snorkeling in St. Croix. The best part is that you can find over 250 fish species. Not only that, but you can also find a host of other aquatic animals such as eagle rays, sea turtles and sometimes juvenile reef sharks as well as lemon sharks too.

Don't forget that Buck Island is a national monument. This means it is under national park protection. So, you need to make reservations before arriving.

3rd Spot for snorkeling in the Virgin Island: Leinster Bay

If you are looking for the best spot for you and your family than there is no better option than Leinster Bay. Your kids will love to swim along with angelfish, southern stingrays and with trumpetfish as well.

There is a high chance that you will meet with eagle rays or barracudas if you swim deeper.

4th Spot for snorkeling in the Virgin Island: Waterlemon Cay

Waterlemon Cay is also one of the best places for spending a vacation. Not to forget that you can find over 40 species of soft as well as hard corals.

Do you know that the seagrass in front of the beach is the home of rays and turtles? And you can also spot the orange and yellow sea stars too.
